IN HIERDIE UITGAWE ... / IN THIS ISSUE ...

°David Perk expresses stimulating thoughts about his conviction that not apartheid but the real experience by believers of their unity in the Spirit, offers the solution to the racial problem in South Africa. ... P.3.

°Mr. H. Goris, an economist of Pretoria, writes about the danger which constantly threatens the Church of being denatured from the house of God into a house of merchandise. P. 6.

°The Rev. Christopher Gregorowski pleads for inter-denominational and inter-racial group action in order to promote a Christian community in our country. P. 8.

°Dr. Francois Möller of Paarl tells of how he came to the conclusion that the service of God is not really a demand but a gift of God by which sinners are liberated to love God and the neighbour. P. 10.

°What is the attitude of the World Council of Churches towards Communism? Is there any truth in the story about the Council being a Communist Front Movement? P. 11.

°Prof. B.B. Keet writes, inter alia, of an interesting event when a group of Roman Catholic school children visited and viewed a Protestant church. P. 3.

°The full text of "The Confession of 1967", recently approved by the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. is offered to our readers. P. 14.
